

TBI 606: Abusive Head Trauma & Neglect

This course will cover the: incidence and prevalence of abusive head trauma (AHT) or formerly known as "shaken baby", identify leading causes and consequences of AHT and neglect, and what strategies, interventions, tools and resources are available to support individuals in school, employment settings, community and their families too.

This course is being offered multiple times March - June. FREE to attend, VIRTUAL and open to the public.

A total of 3 contact hours for PD/CEUs.

For additional information or questions please email Tiffany Wilkinson at info.erllc@gmail.com

To register please visit our EVENT PAGE. Thank you

Hosted by Empowerment Research, LLC in a partnership with the Arizona Governor's Council on Spinal & Head Injuries